

Wording Examples

We have put together a guide of wording examples that you may wish to use for your stationery, but if you prefer you can write your own choice of wording for us to use. We offer a free personalisation service for the invitations and place cards. This means you can have the names of all your guests printed directly onto them, saving you from the very tedious task of handwriting each and every one! Obviously the choice is yours, so if you would prefer to do it yourself we can just leave a space to write instead.

It is a simple process to take advantage of the personalisation option. All we would require is for you to type out the names of your guests into a Microsoft Excel template which we would provide to you by email.

(You would need a working copy of Microsoft Excel to complete this).
